PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As you read this Bo & I will be frantically packing and repacking our suitcases to ensure we have all we need for our trip.

We fly out on the 29th September to Venice for 3 days prior to embarking on a cruise down the Adriatic, visiting 4 other countries before disembarking in Istanbul for a 3 day lay over prior to flying home.

Thank you to Kathy for stepping in at short notice in September and once again for October. Thank you also to Lyne Boyle for agreeing to be Secretary at the October meeting.

Hope to see you all in November. So for us, it's "bon voyage".

Bryan Parker
President

RAINMAKERS—Maroochydore Beach Holiday Park

Report by Anne Oxley

A small group of dedicated Rainmakers spent 4 delightful days at the Maroochydore Caravan Park. The park is right on the beach - ideal for early morning walks and walking distance to the local shops and also the Maroochydore Surf Club.

Whilst Kevin and Sue Bowe were in their motor home and David and Trish Moore set up their Caravan, Tony and I stayed in one of the Park's cabins. Tim and Marika Langley drove down daily from their home in Coolum to join us during the day.

Apart from morning walks, we relaxed, read books, or tackled the daily crosswords. We also enjoyed card games. One morning, we ventured to the Cinema to say "farewell" to "Downton Abbey", the last film of this hugely popular TV and film series.

We mostly catered for our own meals, but had a lunch after the cinema and one evening enjoyed a dinner at the Maroochydore Surf Club.

The next Rainmakers event will be sometime in November, to be hosted by David and Trish.

"Watch This Space" - and we look forward to more members joining us for an enjoyable get-away next time.
